BARRIERS AND BENEFITS OF MULTIDISCIPLINARY ROUNDS IN LABOR AND DELIVERY

PRESENTED BY:
CAROL HEAD MSN, RN
RAINY GORDON BSN, RN
The authors take full responsibility for the content of this presentation and report no actual or potential conflict of interest.
OBJECTIVES

After attending this presentation the conference participants will be able to identify:

- Key participants needed for multidisciplinary rounding on their Labor and delivery unit
- Potential Barriers to implementation
- Overall Benefits of implementation
Patient

- Population Demographics
- Social services
- Nurses
- Midwife
- Anesthesia
- Physicians
- Pediatrician/Neonatology
POTENTIAL BARRIERS

Organizational Structure
- Hospitalist/Midwives
- Private practitioners
- OB designated anesthesia
- Pediatricians/Neonatologist

Participant Buy-in
- Unit Activity
- Office Hours
- Ancillary staff availability
- Discharge protocol
BENEFITS

- Patient Centered Care
- Enhanced Communication
- Enhanced Teamwork
- Staff Satisfaction
- Patient Satisfaction

- Patient Safety !!!
OUR TEAM

- Round Table overview 0830/2030
  - Peds, Social Work, OB, CNM, NRN, Charge RN, Asst. Manager, Anesthesia

- Bedside Team Rounds
  - Nurse presents patient
  - Brief History and Current Status
  - The PLAN!
REFERENCES

